Policy for Reconciling Parties

1. Please present at the window, or in writing, that you are now living together as an intact family.
2. Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) must verify, in writing, that you are living together.
3. The same address must be verified for each party, either in writing, through a driver's license, or by other appropriate documentation.
4. State of Michigan arrears must still be collected. Pregnancy and birthing expenses still continue, unless the parties marry.
5. A zero uniform child support order will be prepared for entry by the Friend of the Court.
6. That uniform child support order will include the following provisions:
 - a. A finding addressing the collection of arrears
 - b. Continuation of pregnancy and birthing expenses
 - c. Should the parties separate, they are to notify the Friend of the Court, immediately, in writing, of the change to their status. Support will reinstate, at the amounts charging immediately prior to the entry of the zero uniform support order, upon notification of a party, or from the time MDHHS verifies that parties are no longer an intact family. That order will enter immediately, without the benefit of a hearing.
7. A motion is not required if the above provisions are followed.
