

Vehicle Rules & Regulations

Violation of these rules and regulations may result in a denial of vehicle use

Permits are only valid per the location listed on an approved application

- Multiple locations for a single vehicle can be approved under one permit, but are required to be specifically listed on an approved permit or attached email, with the permit fee being applied separately to each location where the vehicle is used

All vehicle movement beyond the approved job site(s) is required to be escorted by the Mackinac Island Police Department

- Mackinac Island Police Department Main Phone – (906) 847 - 3300
- All escorts must be scheduled with ample notice to the police department
- Escort times are subject to police availability

Vehicle operators must be able to provide valid, approved permit numbers, or possibly permit copies, upon request

Additional restrictions set forth by the Mackinac Island City Council upon approval of the permit application may be applied to specific vehicles and / or job sites and should be listed on the approved copy of a permit application

Permitted vehicles are not allowed to park and / or operate on City streets (Main St., Market St., Cadotte Ave through Harrisonville, Stonecliffe & Mission residential areas) during the following events:
