

Quality Windows and Doors for All Seasons

Wojan Becomes AIA/CES Registered Provider

January 31, 2010

Wojan Window & Door recently became approved as a Registered Provider for The American Institute of Architects' (AIA) Continuing Education System (CES).

Download our course summary and contact us to schedule a course.

Founded in 1952, Wojan Window & Door Corp. manufactures quality aluminum windows and sliding glass doors for the U.S. marketplace from facilities in Charlevoix and Coldwater, Michigan. The diverse product line is rated for a variety of commercial and architectural applications. Wojan has been recognized four years in a row by Inc.[®] Magazine as one of the fastest growing private companies in America. Wojan is a member of AAMA (American Architectural Manufacturers Association), and is a registered provider with AIA/CES (American Institute of Architects Continuing Education System).

www.wojan.com